December 2011 was a very good month with regard to passenger numbers, with an increase of 8.7% (Excl Transit), when compared to December 2010, which is the best year on year increase since May 2011. Movements also increased by 3.6%, but a dreadful month for freight with a decrease of 15.7%. The Moving Annual total for passengers is + 6.5% (Excl Transit) and -6.8% for freight. Since passenger numbers have generally followed the freight figures a few months later, I wouldn't be too optimistic for 2012.
